A Tale of Murder!

Can you imagine 10,000 people attending a hanging in June 1859, at the old Court House in northwest Cobourg? Come hear Dan Buchanan talk about the only person ever executed in Northumberland County and how the author is directly connected to the murderer.

Dan Buchanan is a genealogist and historian. Known as a local "history guy," Dan is involved in many organizations and projects in the Brighton area related to history and heritage. Much of his work is available on his website.

This book is at once history, mystery, and family lore, and also reveals much about the middle-class morés prevailing in Victorian Ontario.
